We're celebrating International Archives Month in Montgomery with a visit to some of our favorite local archives! Pick up a passport at any participating location or go to www.archives.alabama.gov to download a PDF to print at home. During October, visit each location listed here for special displays or programs, and get a stamp in your passport. Once you've filled your passport, enter to win great prizes!

On Saturday, October 4th, to kick off our monthlong crawl, we will be providing trolley transportation between participating sites. Park your car in the free parking lot at the Alabama Department of Archives & History and hop on board for a stress-free trip to some of our favorite archives around Montgomery.

	Arrive	Depart
Alabama Department of Archives & History		10:30
Alabama Public Television	10:35	11:10
The Archives at the Rosa Parks Museum	11:20	11:50
H. Council Trenholm State Technical College Library/Archives	12:00	12:30
Auburn University at Montgomery Library, Archives, & Special Collections Department	12:50	1:20
Alabama State University Archives	1:35	2:05
Alabama Department of Archives & History	2:15

Transportation will only be available on Saturday, October 4th, so don't miss it! Participants are also welcome to drive their own vehicles along the route. Feel free to bring a snack or brown bag lunch to enjoy in the Legacy Garden at the H. Council Trenholm State Technical College Library/Archives. After October 4th, stop by our sites during their normal operating hours to see their resources and collect your stamps.
